Customs and Compliance

SEKO provides Customs clearance services Globally. All offices are managed by approved Customs Brokers and offer full clearance and entry services, regardless of the transport mode.

“When we attended a regulatory compliance seminar hosted by the US Department of Commerce, the presenter stated that SEKO set the bar for compliance in the logistics industry. All of our staff took note, and we feel comfortable knowing that SEKO is our export compliance partner.”

Martin Spencer - Trijicon

Customs Brokerage

SEKO Customs Brokerage offices maintain Remote Location Filing (RLF) at all ports of entry around the world. Our goal is to provide an Import Management Program that addresses all of your clearance requirements. Our standard service includes assisting you with reasonable care, complete post entry audits and customized point-and-click report writing.

Superior Quality and Service

The cornerstones of our 24/7 quality support include the development of a Client Import Policy and Procedures manual, classification/valuation assistance, online tracking, an image processing system and access to our Global communications services - all of which are critical success factors in maintaining compliance to governmental regulations.

Visibility and Integration

The SEKO Import Operating system is directly linked to AMS, ABI and ACE portal applications. This state of the art technology provides quick transmissions and data recovery from the Customs Database. Access to our operating system for document generation, compliance reporting and report writing is also available for designated customers.

The SEKO customs brokerage service includes:

- Real time track and trace
- Importer security filing (10 + 2)
- Import compliance consulting
- Paperless environment
- EDI transmissions and email alerts
- Remote Location Filing (RLF)
- Commodity specialists
- Bonds and insurance services
- Duty drawback and reconciliation
- Classification and value assistance

Compliance Training and Consulting

SEKO offers both export and import compliance audits, consulting, training, seminars and outsourcing solutions for shippers in the United States. We tailor each solution to your specific needs and work with you to enter and access new markets for exports, as well as streamlining operations for imports.

“I just wanted to tell you what a pleasure it is to work with SEKO. You are one step ahead of me when it comes to planning my bookings and getting me the paperwork I need once the order ships. If all my forwarders were like you, it would be a perfect working world.”

Faye Cotilletta - NBTY International
